Vacuum cast coil dry type transformers
The flexible solution for wind power

ABB is the technology leader providing the broadest experience and product range for wind farm applications. Vacuum cast coil dry type transformers manufactured by ABB are suitable for installation inside the turbine either on the ground floor, at a first level or in the most demanding location, the nacelle. Specially designed to work under harsh environmental conditions, both onshore and offshore.

www.abb.com/transformers