

Certificate of completion

ABB Low voltage service

This certifies that

Name
Company

has completed the course for

Low Voltage Breaker Services: General Maintenance Training

August 20, 2014

The low voltage breaker service training course provides participants hands on experience working with ABB Emax air circuit breakers. Following the course, the participant will have a working knowledge of general troubleshooting and basic maintenance for Emax air circuit breakers.

Name of Trainer

function

departement

Power and productivity
for a better world™

