Important notice: Commercial Essential order quantity changes

Please be advised that effective March 1, 2020, ABB Installation Products Inc. has revised its minimum order quantities for the following Commercial Essential product lines:

- PL001 — Steel City® boxes and accessories
- PL010 — Steel City commercial die-cast fittings
- PL011 — Steel City commercial fittings
- PL015 — Kindorf® hangers and clamps
- PL116 — Steel City EMT fittings
- PL135 — Steel City squeeze connectors

These changes are intended to help eliminate order errors, improve delivery quality, minimize the potential for shipping damage and improve efficiency.

The new minimum order quantity changes vary by product line and part number. Please see file named CE_Order Multiple Changes 011520.xlsx for a list of affected part numbers and corresponding minimum order quantities.

T&B Access has been updated to reflect the new minimum quantities. Please adjust your systems and purchase orders accordingly.
