

Historic HVDC Maritime Link commissioned in Canada

Enabling exchange of clean power from Newfoundland and Labrador to Nova Scotia and the North American grid

The world's first bipolar VSC HVDC system

Additional renewables will help reduce the use of fossil fuels and CO₂ emissions, improve grid stability and boost power exchange

500 MW capacity. Enough electricity to supply up to 350,000 homes