

Giuseppe Di Marco

Managing Director, Process Industries business unit, Process Automation division, ABB

Giuseppe is an Engineering graduate and joined ABB in 1981.

He started in the Power division of ABB where he held various management positions in many countries excelling in managing units that were running large and mega projects.

In 2003, he entered the Process Automation division as Mediterranean Regional Manager.

He later moved on to become the Country Manager of the UAE and Cluster Manager for the Southern Gulf region in the Middle East.

In 2012 he was appointed as Global Mining Business Manager and in 2015 he became the Global Manager for ABB's Process Industry Businesses which includes Mining, Metals, Aluminium, Cement, Pulp and Paper.

