

Optimize process performance without compromising energy efficiency.

Challenges facing water and wastewater utilities include managing leakage and pressure, optimizing pump performance, improving potable water quality, reducing energy consumption and CO₂ emissions, and lowering maintenance costs. ABB's drives, motors and PLCs help pumps, fans, compressors and conveyors tackle these, and other, challenges. Improve your utility's energy efficiency and productivity, call ABB.

www.abb.com/water

