

Matching the peaks and troughs in demand without throttling the planet.

Using ABB drives and motors can increase the efficiency of a power plant's pumps and fans significantly. By employing ABB drives on pumps and fans instead of www.abb.com

using throttling or damping devices, the energy bill can be reduced by as much as 60 percent. To discover how drives and motors are helping improve the performance of some of the world's most efficient power generation plants, call ABB.

