Harnessing renewables to supplement the grid

ABB’s automation solution for the renewables industry is a holistic offering that will control renewable power plant operations and comply with grid code requirements of the regional grid operator. A solution that provides Supervisory Control and Data Acquisition products (SCADA), Intelligent Electronic Devices (IEDs) and plant safety systems that are essential to match grid requirements for renewable power plants, optimize plant performance and maximize return on investments. abb.com