

ABB tacteo® KNX

The individual touch

Unique in design and function, the intuitive and individually configurable ABB tacteo® KNX sensor is as extraordinary as you are. The impressive, high-quality glass sensor offers virtually unlimited possibilities for intelligent building networking. Heating, ventilation, blinds and lighting can all be controlled to create comfortable everyday situations and put intelligent building management firmly in your hands. And now the new color range offers a selection of current trends in attractive designs and adds a colorful touch to customized interior design. Discover more details at abb.com/tacteo

