ABB Spare Parts and Consumables

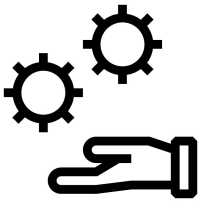
The parts you choose when failure's not an option.

ABB delivers the customer experience others can’t match

Traceable, consistent, and supported around the clock.

When you go with ABB’s genuine parts, you keep the line running — with the highest-quality components, expert support to ensure the right fit, and a global system that delivers fast, traceable replacements. ABB parts are OEM-certified, built to exact specifications, and verified through rigorous quality and compliance checks.

Better parts

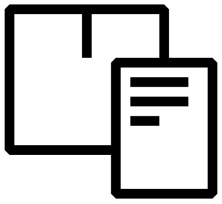


Verified robot spare parts that perform like new.

Better people

Support from the people who actually built it.

Better infrastructure



The part you need, when & where you need it.

Flexible OEM options for every budget

New parts

Replaceable components, sub-assembly, and assembly identical and interchangeable with the item it is intended to replace.

Exchange units

Return your damaged parts and get certified replacements at a lower cost, without sacrificing reliability.

Part repair

Extend the life of controllers and manipulators with ABB-approved repairs that restore full performance.

Stock packages

We'll help you stock only what matters, using your robot's serial number to guide critical spares and avoid overbuying.

Part kits

Pre-bundled part kits include the right parts for regular service, helping you plan ahead and reduce emergency repairs.

Why ABB is the safest choice

Non-OEM suppliers

- Cheap, faulty, or fake parts
- No expert support or accountability
- No traceability

ABB genuine parts
