New Zealand HVDC link upgrade
Boosting grid reliability and enabling clean energy transmission

A long term relationship
First New Zealand link commissioned by ABB in 1965

South Island
Vast amounts of hydro power generation

North Island
Large population, higher energy demand

Balances power trading between the islands

Over 600 km long interconnection

Haywards

Benmore

Power capacity 1.240 MW