

ABB Formula E distributor contest

Take the QUIZ and win great prizes

For the first time since ABB became the title partner of the ABB Formula E World Championship, this electric car race will take place in Canada in 2022.

ABB's Signature Service Branch Incentive Program is entering its 4th year. To electrify the program, we decided to add an ABB Formula E bonus incentive to this year's offering.

Whether you're already a fan or new to the circuit, take our ABB Formula E quiz to test your knowledge and register to win incredible prizes including a trip for two to the race!
