Madawaska upgrade
Securing the transmission of renewable hydropower from Quebec

MACH digital control and protection system delivering controllability and reliability

300 megawatts of electricity, enough to power over 220,000 homes*
*based on Canadian national average household 2010

ABB, enabling Canada’s commitment to renewable energy integration

The Madawaska HVDC transmission system strengthens the electrical grid