

Efficient body building without the stress and strain.

Throughout the automotive sector ABB's extensive portfolio of drives, motors, PLCs and robots provides the perfect combination to enhance productivity levels, while economically using energy. Whatever the application, whether for powertrain assembly, body-in-white, paint processes, press automation or automotive components, ABB helps manufacturers improve productivity, product quality, energy efficiency and worker safety. To discover more, call ABB.

www.abb.com

