General advisory June 5th, 2017

Cyber Security within Transformers

Notice
The information in this document is subject to change without notice, and should not be construed as a commitment by ABB. ABB provides no warranty, express or implied, including warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, for the information contained in this document, and assumes no responsibility for any errors that may appear in this document. In no event shall ABB or any of its suppliers be liable for direct, indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages of any nature or kind arising from the use of this document, or from the use of any hardware or software described in this document, even if ABB or its suppliers have been advised of the possibility of such damages.

This document and parts hereof must not be reproduced or copied without written permission from ABB, and the contents hereof must not be imparted to a third party nor used for any unauthorized purpose.

All rights to registrations and trademarks reside with their respective owners.

© Copyright 2017 ABB. All rights reserved.

Introduction
We are committed to providing our customers with products, systems and services that clearly address cyber security. Proper and timely handling of cyber security incidents and software vulnerabilities is one important factor in helping our customers minimize risks associated with cyber security.

Transformer Products
Within ABB Transformers we publish advisories about cyber security on the product pages and ABB cyber security page. We recommend our customer to continuously visit these web pages or use the email subscription service.

To read the latest advisories or subscribe to email alerts please visit www.abb.com/cybersecurity and click on Alerts and Notifications.

Support
For additional information and support please contact your local ABB service organization. For contact information, see www.abb.com.

Information about ABB’s cyber security program and capabilities can be found at www.abb.com/cybersecurity.