ABB

CHV130 – Project Leadership, Management and Communications

Course goal
This interactive course provides a solid foundation in key leadership competencies giving you the opportunity to truly transformational leadership experiences.

Main learning objectives
− Leading project teams by effective/ efficient communication

− Recognition of motivating value systems in order to increase cooperation and productivity

− Distinguish between cooperate and personal sense of values

− Change management (recognition of predictable changes and development of adequate strategies to manage the expected changes)

− Be able to use a four step, cooperative negotiation process

− Establish a leadership development plan for your daily business

Participant profile
Project Managers with at least two or more years of project management experience who require leadership competencies to manage larger (more people) international projects with cross border communication/ interaction. Senior and advanced project managers learn the common project conceptions and terminology, in order to effectively communicate with project team members of cross border projects.

Prerequisites
Function according to "Participants" and the enthusiasm to participate actively throughout the whole course.

Topics
− Leadership and management

− Developing groups into teams

− Leading successful teams

− Networking/ maximizing interpersonal relationship

− Ethics and leadership

− Negotiating conflicts

− Change management, leadership and management of organizational changes.

Course type
This is a face-to-face class room training with min. 7 and max. 20 participants.

Learning methods and tools
Through a dynamic combination of informative instruction, revealing case studies, lively discussion, and practical exercises, students explore various leadership styles, learn how to win the confidence of peers, and discover innovative ways to resolve conflicts so that a project stays on track.
Laptop or tablet is required to have access to the e-documentation. Please bring your own device.

Duration
3 days