E-mail and fax require written confirmation of the receiving Party. Supplier's reply, correspondence, information or documentation related to the Contract must be provided in the language used in the Contract.

17. WAIVERS

Failure to enforce or exercise any term of the Contract does not constitute a waiver of such term and does not affect the right later to enforce such or any other term therein contained.

22. RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES

22.1 The relationship of the Parties is that of independent parties dealing at arm's length and nothing in the Contract may be construed to constitute Supplier as an agent or employee of Customer or so as to have any kind of partnership with Customer, and Supplier must not represent itself as or act on behalf of Customer.

22.2 The Contract does not imply any employment relationship between Customer and Supplier, or between Customer and Supplier's employees assigned to the execution of the Contract. Customer remains free of any responsibility or liability for labour, social security or taxes with respect to Supplier and its employees assigned to the execution of the Contract.

22.3 This Contract is not made for the benefit of, nor shall any of its provisions be enforceable by, any person other than the Parties to this Contract and their respective successors and permitted assignees.
