

You need more than solar panels to stay in the business.

ABB. A reliable partner for every application in the solar industry.

Thanks to its long-term experience and wide choice of products, systems and solutions to control, transmit, distribute and exploit safely electrical power, ABB is ready to support your business in the fast growing market of renewable energies.

If you are an Engineer, an OEM, a Solar Tracker Manufacturer, a General Contractor or an Installer you need more than solar panels to offer complete and reliable solutions to your Customers, no matter if you are building big solar power plants or installing a single panel on the roof of an house. PLCs, AC drives, motors, contactors, relays, switch-disconnectors, moulded-case and miniature circuit-breakers, surge protective devices, fuse holders, terminal blocks, control boards and waterproof enclosures for outdoor use: from ABB, products and competence for every residential, commercial and power plant application.